Eugene Lavey, in his capacity as an)

)	DESIST ORDER
Respondent.)

Based upon recently discovered facts regarding Respondent's ownership of the insurance agency, the State Auditor in her capacity as Commissioner of Securities and Insurance of the State of Montana (Commissioner), pursuant to the authority of the Montana Insurance Code, Mont. Code Ann. § 33-1-101, et seq., hereby issues an amended allegations of fact, proposed conclusions of law, order and notice of right to a public hearing:

ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

1. Eugene "Tip" Lavey (Lavey) was an appointed insurance agent with Farmers Insurance Company (Farmers) starting on December 1, 1999. Lavey sold Farmers insurance products and collected policyholders' premium payments at his office in Scobey, Montana.

2. As a mail-in agent, Farmers contractually required Lavey to deposit premium into an independent trust account. The contract required Lavey to send a check for the total cash amount collected and all other check collections to an approved co-owned bank account. Farmers required Lavey to perform this task within two days upon receipt.

3. On April 22, 2009, Farmers audited Lavey's insurance company. He had not forwarded $22,448.00 in premium payments at that time.
4. Farmers' auditor found $13,510.30 in un-deposited premium checks at Lavey's office. The remaining $8,937, however, could not be located and Lavey could not account for these missing funds.
5. Furthermore, the audit revealed Lavey kept premium payments in his personal bank account and not an independent trust account.
6. On May 17, 2009, Farmers terminated Lavey.
7. On November 11, 2009, the Office of the Commissioner of Securities and Insurance (CSI) received a complaint from Farmers alleging Lavey misappropriated premium payments.
8. The CSI assigned Investigator Neil Brunett (Brunett). Brunett relied on standard investigation methods, requesting information from Mr. Lavey, his insurance business, and Farmers.
9. On December 13, 2009, the CSI's investigators interviewed Lavey. At the interview, Lavey admitted he deposited policyholders' premium payments into his personal banking account and he used premium payments for his personal use, although he could not say the exact amount.
10. The CSI obtained Lavey's personal bank records. The records revealed that between May 1, 2008, through April 30, 2009, Lavey personally used $56,514.55 in policyholders' premium on approximately 219 separate instances.

11. The CSI investigators conducted a follow-up interview on April 15, 2010. Lavey stated that he was going through some mental health issues and was living outside his means. He again admitted he used policyholders' premium payments for personal use.

12. Lavey explained while he would immediately credit policyholders in Farmers' computer system, he would wait before forwarding the payments. He did this because he did not have enough funds to cover all outstanding premiums. Lavey admitted he used money coming in from newer payments to pay older amounts and this process continued until Farmers audited his company.

13. Lavey admitted he knew using policyholders' premium payments for personal use violated the Montana Insurance Code.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Commissioner has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Mont. Code Ann. § 33-1-101, et seq.

2. Pursuant to Mont. Code Ann. §§ 33-1-1302(8) and 45-6-301(6), a person commits the offense of theft when the person purposely or knowingly is involved in the misappropriation of insurance premiums or proceeds.

3. Lavey violated Mont. Code Ann. § 33-1-1302(8) by purposely and knowingly misappropriating $56,514.55 of policyholders' premium payments on approximately 219 separate occasions for his personal use.

4. Pursuant to Mont. Code Ann. § 33-17-1102, all insurance premiums received by an insurance producer must be held in a separate trust account and an insurance producer may not divert or appropriate the funds or any portion of the funds to the insurance producer's own use. An insurance producer who purposely or knowingly diverts or misappropriates insurance premiums commits theft.

5. Lavey violated Mont. Code Ann. § 33-17-1102 by purposely and knowingly depositing $56,514.55 in premium payments on approximately 219 separate occasions into his personal bank account.
